

I would like like the Morse code to remain a requirement for obtaining an amateur radio license. I feel that it is still one of the most effective and reliable means of communication available today!
Thankyou for your consideration.